

The School of Graduate Studies is asking all supervisors/advisors to meet with their research-stream Master’s and PhD students to document their planning for academic progress in response to the COVID-19 pandemic. This may be a supplement to the Annual Progress Report (APR) meeting for doctoral students or a separate meeting.

Please complete the following form with your supervisor and submit to rsi.admin@utoronto.ca alongside of your Supervisory Committee Form.

REPORT FOR ACTIVITIES DURING: (Indicate time period)
STUDENT NAME:		SUPERVISOR:
PROGRAM/DEPARTMENT:		DEGREE:	<input type="checkbox"/> MSc <input type="checkbox"/> PhD <input type="checkbox"/> MA
YEAR IN PROGRAM:

ISSUE	DISRUPTION IDENTIFIED (Y/N)	DETAILS OF DISRUPTION	MITIGATION STRATEGY
Access to educational activities (e.g., courses, conferences)
Access to research activities (e.g., fieldwork, lab work, data sources)
Access to equipment or technology (e.g., internet, tools and materials)
Availability to engage in academic activities (e.g., caregiving demands, international mobility)
Interruptions to funding (lost awards or grants, RA income, TA income)
Unanticipated expenses to students (e.g., new costs for research)
Access to research activities (e.g., fieldwork, lab work, data sources)
Other

SUPERVISOR COMMENTS:

STUDENT COMMENTS:

DATE FOR FOLLOW UP MEETING:

HELPFUL RESOURCES

SGS Resources:

- Strategies for Graduate Mentoring and Supervision at a Distance
- Guide to Working from Home for Graduate/Postdoctoral Researchers
- SGS Coronavirus \(COVID-19\) Updates
- Essential Guide for Grad Students 2019-2020
- SGS Graduate Wellness Portal
- SGS Financial Aid and Advising
- SGS Student Academic Services Office

U of T Resources:

- Main U of T COVID-19 page
- U of T Libraries
- Division of the Vice-President, Research & Innovation